ARTICLE 3: EXCHANGE OF RESEARCH PERSONNEL

3.1 This MOU is intended, among other objectives, to foster increased interaction among faculty and advanced graduate students engaged in scientific and scholarly research in areas of mutual interest. In support of this effort, each institution will promote the exchange of research personnel, especially young faculty and advanced graduate students, for short periods of time so that they may become familiar with the facilities, methodologies, research culture and particular areas of focus of the other institution.

3.2 As a general principle, funding for the exchange of such personnel ("Participating Researchers") shall be based on a reciprocal sharing of costs:

3.2.2 Each host institution will provide housing accommodations free of charge, as well as a modest living allowance in accordance with the standard per diem rates established by their governing bodies at the time of the exchange, to the Participating Researchers.

3.2.3 Each institution will provide assistance, and 'or the necessary letters of invitation or affiliation to facilitate the applications of Participating students.

3.3 Each institution acknowledges that the Participating Researchers may engage only in general, collaborative activities involving basic, non-proprietary research during exchange visits under this MOU. The institutions do not intend for the Participating Researchers to create or develop new intellectual property as a result of such Visits. It intellectual property is created or developed by Participating Researchers under this MOU, the institutions will negotiate in good faith to resolve issues including but not limited to ownership, responsibility for patent or other statutory protection, and licensing.

3.4 If, during the visits, the Participating Researchers identify specific collaborative research projects that they wish to pursue, the institutions will enter into a separate written agreement ("Specific Collaborative Research Project MOU") before commencing any research activity. Specific Collaborative Research Project MOU, will delineate the institutions rights and obligations and will address, among other things, sources of funding and intellectual property rights. Each institution shall inform its Participating Researchers that they are responsible for reporting to their respective Liaison Officer regarding any proposed specific collaborative research projects that may arise from their initial visits and their interactions with one another under this MOU, prior to initiating projects or applying jointly for external funding for such projects. Each institution also shall inform its Participating Researchers of their obligations to abide by all regulations, policies and procedures of their employing institutions regarding the disclosing and handling of intellectual property and developed technologies that may arise under this MOU or under any Specific Collaborative Research Project MOU.
